Communion by Extension

From February the Ministry Leadership Team Will be leading services that are Communion by Extension. In other words they are extended from a previous Communion Service where the bread and wine have been consecrated (normally) by me. This will allow us to continue to share bread and wine together at the Lord's Table Sunday by Sunday in our various churches and I am very grateful for the MLT in enabling this for us. If you have any questions about this please do contact me. Steve

Would you like to learn how to ring bells? This is a call for "new bell ringers". Our English what a great exercise without going to the gym! Brilliant for the brain and meeting people, who could become friends.

If you would like to give it a try, please contact

Third Sunday of Epiphany

Today's Readings: Nehemiah 2 and Luke 12:22-31

God's provision

In the midst of Nehemiah's discernment that he is on God's path, God provides. Nehemiah was not confident in human terms - he was very much afraid - but God was with Him - He was about God's task. It might not be a complete proven but God is providing through King Artaxerxes - a micro of what we saw in Ezra for the rebuilding of the Temple. In terms of the life of this Parish in the last few months I have been particularly conscious of God's provision to us over the years despite the difficult financial environment in which we find ourselves. What is God asking of us?
