Pew News

Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity

Welcome to this Service

If you are new to this Church or a visitor please do make yourself known to us.

Today's Readings: Acts 24:1-27 and Luke 12:8-12

Service Theme: God at work through others

Paul has been moved to Caesarea in secrecy by the Romans to avoid a plot by some Jews against his life, to appear before the Governor Felix. At Paul's conversion God told Ananias that Paul would stand before "Gentiles and their kings" (9:15). This comes to fulfilment as Paul bears witness before two Roman governors, Felix (vv. 1-27) and Festus (25:1-12; 25:23-26:32), and before the Jewish king Agrippa II (25:23-26:32). The first two episodes are formal trials during which Paul defends himself against his Jewish accusers. While Paul is on trial to defend himself, his "defence" (v. 10) becomes an opportunity for him to bear witness to Jesus.
