General Election 2017: Archbishops highlight the place of faith in British life

In a pastoral letter to the Parishes and Chaplaincies of the Church of England, Archbishops Justin Welby and John Sentamu urge people to set aside "apathy and cynicism" and draw new inspiration from the ancient Christian virtues of "love, trust and hope".

The 3 page letter, encourages voters to remember Britain's Christian history and heritage as well as a concern for future generations and God's creation as they make their decisions.

Pew News

Seventh Sunday of Easter

Welcome to this Service

If you are new to this Church or a visitor please do make yourself known to us.

Today's Readings: Colossians 4:7-24 and Acts 15:36-41

Service Theme - God uses conflict for good

This conflict shows that Luke is not afraid to present the early church "warts and all". It is not surprising that Barnabas wants to give John Mark a second chance since he is his cousin and since Barnabas, whose name means "son of encouragement", is a natural mediator.

Thy Kingdom Come: 25th May - 4th June 2017

Archbishop Justin and Archbishop Sentamu write, "We are writing in the hope that you and those whom you serve in Christ's name might share with us in prayer between Ascension Day and Pentecost 2017 for the witness of Christians in this country. The aim is simple and threefold:

- To join in prayer with the whole family of God the Father
- To pray for the empowering of God the Holy Spirit
- That we may be effective witnesses to God the Son, Jesus Christ.

Thy Kingdom Come

Personal Prayer cards and Parish leaflet of events are available today.

A message from John: My curacy training with you completes this summer, and it is with both excitement and sadness that I need to announce that God is calling me to become priest-in-charge in the Len Valley Benefice. I will be licensed there on the 10th October meaning that my last Sunday in K&C will be 17th September. Thank you so much for your welcome and support.
